

The Diocese of New York & New Jersey presents a free Conference on Evangelism:
Sharing Orthodoxy in the New World:
Conversations on Faith with Family and Friends

Saturday, October 19, 2013

Assumption Orthodox Church, Clifton, NJ

35 Orange Ave, Clifton, NJ 07013

Focus:

Are you an Orthodox Christian who wonders how to explain to your Baptist grandmother, your Buddhist neighbor, or the Jehovah's Witness at your door how your faith differs from theirs? Or even family members who have fallen away or joined other churches? This conference will show and teach you how to use a non-Sectarian, pastoral approach to sharing Orthodoxy with our friends, family and neighbors alike, further highlighting how it relates to their faith (or no faith!) backgrounds, and in so doing learning how to "speak the truth in love."

Schedule:

- 9:00 am Registration
- 10:00 am Session I: How to have a conversation on faith (Q&A follows this and all following sessions)
- 11:25 am break
- 11:35 am Session II: Talking with Roman Catholics
- 1:00 pm lunch
- 1:45 pm Session III: Talking with Reformed Christians
- 3:15 pm break
- 3:30 pm Session IV: Talking with Evangelicals/non-Christians
- 5:00 pm Vespers

You can order Fr. Andrew's excellent book, Orthodoxy and Heterodoxy (the basic text and background for the retreat) from Ancient Faith Press (formerly Conciliar Press):

To Register (remember, it's free!) or if you have questions:

Simply send an email to Fr. Jonathan Ivanoff at frjonathan@hotmail.com. Include your name, parish, and whether you're registration is for any number of parishioners and interested friends.

Speaker:

Fr. Andrew Stephen Damick is pastor of St. Paul Orthodox Church of Emmaus, Pennsylvania and lectures widely on Orthodox evangelism and other topics. He is a founding member and one of the associate directors of the Society for Orthodox Christian History in the Americas and also hosts the Orthodoxy and Heterodoxy and Roads from Emmaus podcasts, as well as writing the Roads from Emmaus weblog. He is the author of Orthodoxy and Heterodoxy (Conciliar Press, 2011).
