RELEASE NUMBER 2012.19.1

Commission on Liturgical Music: Submissions

The diocesan Commission on Liturgical Music [CoLM] invites composers and arrangers from throughout the diocese to submit liturgical sheet music for posting on their website. In announcing this initiative, the commission co-chairs stated: "We hope the many talented musicians in the diocese will share their efforts for the glorification of God and beautification of His worship in our parishes."

nynjoca.org/liturgical_music.html

Submission guidelines:

- ✓ Initially, five or fewer pieces per composer/arranger
- ✓ Liturgical and para-liturgical music are acceptable (para-liturgical compositions will be relatively limited)
- ✓ Music must be typeset or hand-copied in a clear, legible manner
- ✓ Submissions should be in .pdf format. Audio sound files to illustrate performance are also acceptable
- ✓ Original compositions and/or arrangements are welcome, as are other works in the possession of parishes, but they must not be copyright protected or readily available in published collections (e.g. publications of Saint Vladimir's Seminary Press, Saint Tikhon's Seminary Press)
- ✓ Users of the website will have access to the music for liturgical use only
- ✓ Pieces submitted should be clearly identified as composed or arranged. If arranged, each piece should have clear identification of original work and composer, if possible
- ✓ Submissions are now welcome at: nynjmusic@aol.com

<<<<<<<<<<<<<<<<<<END OF RELEASE - 204 WORDS>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>

V. Rev. Ken James Stavrevsky
Director of Communications ~ frski@rochester.rr.com ~ 585-458-5627 ~ cell 585-770-3496