

CONNECTING OUR YOUTH TO THEIR FAITH BY SERVING OTHERS

A WORKSHOP FOR CHURCH SCHOOL TEACHERS, YOUTH LEADERS AND CLERGY

LEARN HOW TO INSPIRE YOUR YOUTH WITH SERVICE PROJECTS THAT MAKE A DIFFERENCE

10AM-2PM

LUNCH PROVIDED

REGISTER HERE

Saturday, October 19

SS. Peter and Paul Church

401 Hamilton Street

Syracuse, NY

Saturday, October 26

Christ the Saviour Church

365 Paramus Road

Paramus, NJ

Featured Speaker

Andrea Danko-Barna of the Neighborhood Resilience Project, Pittsburgh

NRP is a non-profit organization that responds to acute and long term care of community members experiencing trauma with the hope of building healthy, healing micro communities.

Andrea, at right, with
NRP Community Members

Fr. Paul with NRP
Member Troy Polamalu

Andrea Danko-Barna has been working with the Neighborhood Resilience Project (NRP) since 2020, serving under the guidance of Fr. Paul Abernathy, CEO. She attends St. Moses the Black Orthodox Church, also under the pastoral care of Fr. Paul Abernathy, where she works as Pastoral Assistant and Church School Director. Andrea has devoted her life to learning and educating, teaching high school for several years with a Master of Arts in History and German Language. After finishing her Master of Divinity degree at Regent University (Thesis on St. Maximus the Confessor) in 2017, she worked as a Bible School Director and Instructor. She was Chrismated in 2021. Currently, she is a PhD student at the Antiochian House of Studies. She also teaches two classes for the community at NRP, titled “Ancient Path” and “Lives of the Saints”. Visit the NRP website at www.NRP.org, and search Facebook: Neighborhood Resilience Project.